Session Description: Building relationships and effective communication begin at the opening bell. Getting to know students' interests, strengths, learning needs and abilities is essential for creating an effective learning environment and ensuring student achievement. In addition, building a positive working relationship with families is essential. One way is to set a positive tone by creating an effective Back-to-School Night presentation. During this session, learn strategies for getting to know students and creating a powerful back-to-school night presentation. Walk away with planning strategies, examples of Back To School Night agendas, and helpful tips.
